

Dear Friends and Family,

I would like to share with you an upcoming opportunity which is very important to me.

In the 2014-15 school year, I will be part of a special organization called Dallas Thunder! Dallas Thunder is a non-profit organization made up of homeschooling families like ours. On September 18th, 2014, Dallas Thunder will be a beneficiary of North Texas Giving Day, a one-day event benefitting non-profit organizations all over the north Texas region.

Would you consider supporting this event by making a donation to Dallas Thunder?

For me, being a part of Dallas Thunder means being involved in great things, such as:

- Playing competitive basketball for a Christ-centered team with Christian coaches
- Traveling to Springfield, MO for the National Homeschool Basketball Championships
- Serving the community through special projects and ministries as a part of the Thunder team
- Developing lifelong friendships with other homeschooled student-athletes

In order to make these opportunities possible, our organization relies on fundraising to pay for the many expenses that arise throughout the year. Each Thunder student-athlete has a goal of raising at least $200 as a part of this effort. Your financial support in the form of a donation on North Texas Giving Day would be a huge help toward achieving my $200 goal!

How does it work? It is very simple.

- 1) Let me know ahead of time if you plan to make a donation (and the amount).
- 2) On September 18th, simply go to the website shown below:
<http://www.northtexasgivingday.org/#npo/dallas-homeschool-basketball>
- 3) Using a credit card, follow the instructions shown to make a donation.
- 4) Feel free to search around and donate to other worthy causes as well!

Please know that any amount is appreciated, and no amount is too small.

You can know that your support is making a difference in my life as well as those of my teammates!
Thank you for considering this opportunity!

Sincerely,
